CONTENTS OF VOLUME XXXI, No. 5, 1937

(All rights reserved)

XCIII. Observations on the chemistry of muscle glycogen. By F. G. Young. (With one figure) ........................................... 711

XCIV. Ultracentrifugal studies of compounds of proteins with polysaccharides. Compounds between proteins and glycogen. By E. M. MYSTKOWSKI .......................................... 716

XCV. The physical and chemical properties of casein fat. By S. G. STEVENSON and A. L. BACHARACH .................................................. 721

XCVII. The sampling of wood for analysis, with particular reference to the Australian eucalypts. By W. C. CAMPBELL and S. A. BRYANT .............................................. 748

CX. Chemical composition of teeth. V. Spectrographic analysis. By F. LOWATER and M. M. MURRAY ........................................... 837

[P.T.O.]