● General policy The Biochemical Journal publishes papers in English in all fields of biochemistry and cellular and molecular biology, provided that they make a sufficient contribution to biochemical knowledge. Papers may include new results obtained experimentally, descriptions of new experimental methods of biochemical importance, or new interpretations of existing results. Novel theoretical contributions will be considered equally with papers dealing with experimental work. All work presented should have as its aim the development of biochemical concepts rather than the mere recording of facts. Preliminary, confirmatory or inconclusive work will not be published. The Biochemical Journal will not publish material that has been wholly or largely published elsewhere, even as a preliminary communication or in refereed symposium proceedings or on the World Wide Web (WWW); equally, fragmentation of research into the 'least publishable unit' is discouraged.

Submission of a paper implies that it has been approved by all the named authors, that all persons entitled to authorship have been so named, that it reports unpublished work that is not under consideration elsewhere, and that if the paper is accepted for publication the authors will transfer to the Biochemical Society the copyright in the paper, which will then not be published elsewhere in the same form, in any language, without the consent of the Society. Authors will be required to sign an undertaking to these effects.

Authors may suggest potential reviewers for their papers, but the journal is under no obligation to follow such suggestions. Authors may also specify the names of those they wish to be excluded from the review process, and such wishes are usually respected unless, in the opinion of the journal, such a request unreasonably excludes all the expertise available to it in that scientific area.

To allow the reviewers to assess possible overlap with previous work, all submitted papers must be accompanied by duplicate copies of the author's relevant published work, including that on the WWW, and of all related papers in press or under editorial consideration in this or other journals.

The following types of paper are included in the journal.

● Research Papers are the normal form of publication, and may be of any length that is justified by their content. However, because of pressure for space in the journal, no paper, whatever its scientific merits, will be accepted if it exceeds the minimum length required for precision in describing the experiments and clarity in interpreting them. As a guide, most Research Papers published in the Biochemical Journal are of between six and eight printed pages. A concise well-written paper tends to be published more rapidly.

● Accelerated Publications (APs) are short (normally four printed pages) papers bringing particularly novel and significant findings to the attention of the research community. It is intended that a decision on acceptance or rejection will be made within 10 working days of receipt, and publication of accepted APs in an issue will follow within 2 months. APs receive full but accelerated reviewing. The criteria of 'novelty and significance' are strictly enforced, and papers may be rejected solely on the grounds of lack of novelty and significance. APs are not a path to accelerated publication of sound but non-urgent material. Authors must include in their letter of submission a brief statement of why they believe their AP merits accelerated treatment. Papers reporting nucleotide sequences only are not acceptable as APs. One colour figure will be published free of charge in APs; subsequent figures will cost £300 each.

● Reviews will usually be solicited, although unsolicited reviews will be considered for publication. Prospective writers of reviews should first consult the Reviews Editor, via the editorial office, and should enclose a short (one typed page) summary of the area they propose to cover.

● Procedure for submission These instructions do not replace the official Biochemical Journal Instructions to Authors (<http://www.BiochemJ.org>). Authors are encouraged to refer to these for overall guidelines on submitting a paper. Before preparing papers for the journal, authors should consult a current issue to make themselves familiar with the general format, such as the use of cross-headings, layout of tables and figures and citation of references. A full page of text in the Biochemical Journal contains approximately 1200 words; when calculating the printed length of papers, allowance must be made for the space occupied by tables and figures and the number of text words reduced accordingly.

The numerical system of references must be used. A reference to 'unpublished work' must be accompanied by the names of all persons concerned: a reference to a 'personal communication' must be supported by written permission for the quotation from the person or persons concerned; both of these types of citation are permitted in the text only, not in the list of references.

● Submit manuscripts online Authors should submit manuscripts electronically using the Online Submission and Review System available at <http://www.BiochemJ.org/submit/>

● Immediate Publications Manuscripts are published online in PDF format as soon as they are accepted, unless on submission the author requests that this not be done. Immediate Publications are listed in and accessible through Medline, and are freely available to anyone with Internet access.

● Queries and correspondence Authors in the Americas should address all queries and correspondence about their submission to: Dr Sharon Schendel, BJ USA, The Burnham Institute, 10901 N. Torrey Pines Road, La Jolla, CA 92037, U.S.A. (telephone +1 858 713 6283; fax +1 858 713 6284; email editorial@biochemjusa.org). Authors in the U.K., the rest of Europe, Japan and the rest of the world should contact: The Publisher, Biochemical Journal, 59 Portland Place, London W1B 1QW, U.K. (telephone +44 20 7637 5873; fax +44 20 7323 1136; email editorial@portlandpress.com).

● Colour figures The first colour figure is published at no charge provided that one author has been a member of the Biochemical Society for at least 2 years and that the use of colour is deemed scientifically necessary by the reviewers. Subsequent colour figures in the same paper cost £300 each.

● Multimedia adjuncts The Biochemical Journal Online offers authors the opportunity to enhance their papers with multimedia adjuncts (e.g. time-lapse movies, three-dimensional structures, animated schemes). These will be submitted to peer review alongside the manuscript. To submit a paper with a multimedia adjunct, please attach the file when you submit your manuscript electronically. Preferred formats are QuickTime for time-lapse movies and PDB for structures. There is no extra charge associated with the publication of a multimedia adjunct online.
