THE SEVENTH JUBILEE LECTURE
Amino acids and the brain. By J. H. Quastel 765

549TH MEETING, CAMBRIDGE

Colloquium: Biochemistry of Glycoprotein Hormones of the Pituitary Gland
Properties of pituitary luteinizing hormone. By A. Stockell Hartree 781
Properties of pituitary thyroid-stimulating hormone in comparison with those of the gonadotropins. By J. G. Pierce 783
Techniques for the purification of human pituitary follicle-stimulating hormone. By W. R. Butt & S. S. Lynch 785
Immunological techniques and the assay of human pituitary glycoprotein hormones. By C. N. Hales & J. S. Woodhead 787

Colloquium: Energy Coupling in Microbial Transport
The bacterial phosphoenolpyruvate–sugar phosphotransferase system. By S. Roseman 1023
Respiration-linked transport in bacterial membrane vesicles. By W. N. Konings 791
Energy-coupled sugar transport in Chlorella. By W. Tanner 793
Transport driven by transmembrane gradients of chemical and electrical potential. By W. A. Hamilton & D. F. Niven 797
Proton-coupled transport mechanisms in bacteria. By I. C. West 800

Colloquium: Automated Sequencing Techniques for Peptides and Proteins
The use of the automatic Edman sequenator in the structural analysis of polypeptides. By M. D. Waterfield 803
Automatic solid-phase sequencing of peptides and proteins. By E. Schiltz 805
Peptide-sequence determination by mass spectrometry. By H. R. Morris 806
Improvements to the automated sequence analysis of short peptides. By P. G. H. Byfield, E. W. Matthews & I. MacIntyre 808
Comparative aspects of automated sequencing techniques. By J. Bridgen 811

Interaction of platinum(II) compounds with circular deoxyribonucleic acid. By L. P. G. Wakelin 866

Prolonged survival of tumour-bearing mice treated with liposome-entrapped actinomycin D. By D. E. Neerunjun & G. Gregoriadis 868

Intracellular fate and effect of liposome-entrapped actinomycin D injected into rats. By C. D. V. Black & G. Gregoriadis 869

A model for a lysosomal storage disease and a possible method of therapy. By C. M. Colley & B. E. Ryman 871

Evidence for two populations of disulphide bonds on blood platelets. By D. E. MacIntyre & J. L. Gordon 873

Route of administration and the conjugation of phenol in hens. By I. D. Capel, P. Millburn & R. T. Williams 875

The metabolism of phenmetrazine in man and laboratory animals. By R. B. Franklin, L. G. Dring & R. T. Williams 877

Simultaneous hepatic microsomal oxidation of p-nitroanisole and glucuronide conjugation of p-nitrophenol. By M. R. Ranklin 891

Aggregation of cartilage proteoglycans extracted with lanthanum chloride. By R. M. Mason & P. J. Roughley 894

The binding of aurothiomalate to serum proteins in vitro. By C. J. Danpure 899

The effects of cephaloridine on enzyme excretion into the urine. By P. J. Wright, E. O. Ngaha & D. T. Plummer 901

Adult brain nerve-ending content and acetylcholinesterase activity in rats growth-retarded for different periods in early life. By B. P. F. Adlard, J. Dobbing & J. L. Smart 904

Regional brain 5-hydroxytryptamine turnover in adult rats growth-retarded in early life. By M. D. Tricklebank & B. P. F. Adlard 907

The release of 14C-labelled lipids from Escherichia coli strains by a human serum fraction. By B. M. Wilson & A. A. Glynn 909

Molecular evolution of pituitary growth hormone. By M. Wallis & R. V. Davies 911

Vol. 2
The amino acid sequence of porcine thyrotropin with reference to the molecular evolution of glycoprotein hormones. By J. Closset, G. Maghuin-Register & G. Hennen

Affinity chromatography for exhaustive purification of the α and β subunits of human luteinizing hormone. By J. Closset, J.-L. Vandalem & G. Hennen

The disulphide bridges of porcine luteinizing hormone α subunit. By Y. Combarnous & G. Hennen

Restoration of glucogen synthesis in the perfused liver of the streptozotocin-diabetic rat. By P. D. Whitton & D. A. Hems

Insulin-induced adenosine 3':5'-cyclic monophosphate-independent phosphorylation of a fat-cell protein: effect of starving and re-feeding. By W. B. Benjamin, I. Singer & S. T. Fish

High intake of vitamin C in relation to adenosine 3':5'-cyclic monophosphate and guanosine 3':5'-cyclic monophosphate concentrations and to blood sugar concentrations. By S. Lewin

Repression of the enzymes converting benzyl alcohol into benzoate in Acinetobacter calcoaceticus N.C.I.B. 8250. By J. D. Beggs & C. A. Fewson

Selective inhibition of cholesterol synthesis by alkylation inhibitors of hepatic cytoplasmic thiolase. By D. P. Bloxham

The isolation and properties of glutathione reductase from human erythrocytes. By D. J. Worthington & M. A. Rosemeyer

Regulation of pyruvate kinase in Micrococcus denitrificans. By A. R. Slabas & F. R. Whatley

Demonstration of the control of rabbit skeletal-muscle phosphorylase kinase activity in vivo by adenosine 3':5'-cyclic monophosphate-dependent protein kinase. By S. J. Yeaman & P. Cohen

Removal of glucose repression of α-glucosidase synthesis in yeast protoplasts by adenosine 3':5'-cyclic monophosphate addition and its prevention by chloramphenicol. By A. Wiseman & T.-K. Lim

Yeast α-glucosidase destruction-protection by maltose and by adenosine 3':5'-cyclic monophosphate. By A. Wiseman & T.-K. Lim

Activation of uridine diphosphate glucuronyltransferase in guinea-pig liver microsomal fractions by phospholipase C or mechanical fragmentation. By C. Berry, A. Stellon & T. Hallinan

The effect of oxamate on d-lactate accumulation by whole cells and membrane vesicles of Escherichia coli (by title only). By W. W. Nichols & W. A. Hamilton

Proton-coupled lactate transport in Escherichia coli (by title only). By S. M. Collins & W. A. Hamilton

Measurement of the pH gradient in Staphylococcus aureus and its relationship to amino acid uptake (by title only). By T. R. Horne & W. A. Hamilton

Effects of sulphate-limited growth in continuous culture on the efficiency of energy conservation in Escherichia coli. By R. K. Poole & B. A. Haddock

The accumulation of waxes of Acinetobacter calcoaceticus N.C.I.B. 8250. By L. M. Fixter & C. A. Fewson

1974
Electron-transport systems obtained from vegetative organisms and spores of Bacillus megaterium KM. By B. J. Wilkinson & D. J. Ellar

Possible model for the origin of spore protein in bacterial sporulation. By M. W. Eaton & D. J. Ellar

An electron-spin-resonance characterization of Rhodopseudomonas capsulata. By R. C. Prince, J. S. Leigh, Jr. & P. L. Dutton

A change in the type of interaction of isatogens with mitochondrial energy-transfer systems brought about by chemical modification of 2-phenylisatogen. By A. P. Green, A. J. Sweetman & M. T. Khatib

Control of prolactin biosynthesis in vitro by insulin. By R. Shenai & M. Wallis

Control of growth-hormone biosynthesis in vitro by glucose. By A. Betteridge & M. Wallis

The role of adenosine triphosphate in the reconstitution of functional cytochromes in membranes derived from a 5-aminolaevulic acid-requiring mutant of Escherichia coli. By A. E. Rockey & B. A. Haddock

Triplet probes: novel and powerful tools for elucidating the structure of biological membranes. By J.-P. Behr, D. Chapman & K. Razi Naqvi

Nuclear-magnetic-resonance studies of phospholipid-steroid relationships in lipid bilayers. By R. J. M. Smith & C. Green

Studies on trypsin-membrane interactions in both aqueous and hydrocarbon solvents. By P. Austin, G. Dodd, M. Davis & R. Leslie

Binding of lactate dehydrogenase to mixed monolayers of stearic acid and phosphatidylcholine. By M. S. Wooster & J. M. Wrigglesworth

Interaction of glutamate dehydrogenase with detergents and phospholipid membranes. By M. Nemat-Gorgani & G. Dodd

Properties of ribonuclease-sensitive macromolecules associated with the external surface of the mammalian cell. By M. Rieber & J. Bacalao

Phospholipid metabolism in the peripheral nervous system: radioautography of the incorporation of newly synthesized phosphatidylcholine into myelin. By R. M. Gould

Attachment of a regularly arranged protein to the outer membrane of Acinetobacter. By K. J. I. Thorne, A. M. Glauert & M. J. Thornley

Inhibition of mitochondrial pyruvate transport by phenylpyruvate and α-oxo-4-methylpentanoate. By A. P. Halestrap, M. D. Brand & R. M. Denton
The effect of ICI 46474 (tamoxifen) on hormone concentrations during early pregnancy in the rat. By J. Watson, M. Alam, F. B. Anderson & P. J. Heald

Influence of the structure of the D ring of various 20-oxosteroids on their behaviour as substrates for cortisone reductase. By I. H. White & J. Jeffery

Adrenal cell column perfusion: adenosine 3',5'-cyclic monophosphate and the steroidogenic response. By A. M. Hudson & C. McMartin

Cholera toxin and the steroidogenic response of isolated rat adrenocortical cells. By J. W. Palfreyman & D. Schulster

Quantitative determination of fluorescent labelled proteins by using dansyl chloride or fluorescamine with application to polyacrylamide gels. By E. J. Thompson, B. M. Daroga, J. M. S. Quick, R. C. Shortman, B. P. Hughes & A. N. Davison

Preparation and some properties of mammalian cytochrome c modified with 2-hydroxy-5-nitrobenzyl bromide. By T. Brittain & C. Greenwood

Lipid peroxides and the induction of hepatic microsomal cytochrome P-450 in the rat. By W. J. Marshall & C. Naughton

Studies on obelin, the calcium-activated luminescent protein from the hydroid Obelia geniculata. By A. K. Campbell

Regulation of the production of 1,25-dihydroxycholecalciferol in vitro and in vivo. By H. L. Henry, R. J. Midgett & A. W. Norman

Adenosine 3',5'-cyclic monophosphate stimulation of calcium efflux from mitochondria. By A. Matlib & P. J. O'Brien

Calcium uptake and lipid composition of sarcoplasmic reticulum from rapidly glycolysing muscle. By M. C. Berman, D. B. McIntosh & J. E. Kench

The metabolic basis of the post-anoxic failure and recovery of the diabetic rat heart. By D. J. Hearse & D. A. Stewart

Cellular preservation or damage during myocardial anoxia: a biochemical and electron-microscopic investigation. By D. J. Hearse, S. M. Humphrey & W. G. Nayler

The control of fatty acid synthesis by substrate supply in the perfused mouse liver. By D. M. W. Salmon & D. A. Hems α-Mannosidase in zinc-deficient rats: possibility of liposomal therapy in mannosidosis. By H. M. Patel & B. E. Ryman

Mixed monolayers of phospholipids and fusogenic lipids. By B. Maggio & J. A. Lucy

Mechanisms of chemically induced cell fusion. By Q. F. Ahkong, W. Tampion & J. A. Lucy
